Olympic Committee Sets Standard. Frisco Games Approved

Lyons, France, June 12 .- Official recamition of the athletic games to be held at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco was voted by the International Amateur Athletic federa-The resolution was proposed by James E. Sullivan, president of the American Olympic committee, and carried unanimously. Representatives of il the nations present promised to do helr utmost to encourage the sending I teams to the games.

The definition of an amateur was greed upon yesterday by a committee of federation. It follows closely the definition as prepared in the report of the special committee submitted to the federation congress held at Berlin in 1911, and embraces the following rules: 1. An amateur is one who competes Competing for money or any othor promisery reward in any sport, considered as athletic sport, makes the ompetitor a professional in all sports considered as athletic sports.

3. In the event of an amateur compoting with or against a professional Hally sport, not for money and other ciary reward, then the member of he federation to which the athlete beones shall be the judge of such competitor's status, according to its own rnies, and its certificate as to the cometitor's status shall be accepted by all her members of the federation.

4. In track and field athletic sports any one who knowingly competes with or against a professional thereby ceases to be an amateur.

coaches in any sport for money or othor pecuniary consideration is a profesional, except, however, that so far as empetition in his own country, and there only, is concerned an employe or representative of the state or a school or other educational institution, who teaches, trains, or coaches as an incident to his main vocation or employment, may or may not be a professionii as the member of the federation of the country of such a person shall de-

Twelve regulations are also set down an interpretation of the fundamenfal rules on the violation of which an allilete ceases to be an amateur. They prohibit an amateur from making any Pager in connection with the competition in which he is to participate, prohibit him from accepting certain kinds of prizes or selling, pawning, or giving away his prizes, and provide for the manner in which he is to receive ex-

"I think he can lick Ritchie," said Johnny, "He's a clever fellow and a clean, hard hitter. I would like to see him win from the Californian when they meet again, which will be soon, I suppose, for then we'd have a champion who could reduce to 133 pounds ringside and be strong enough to go any limit.

"That would be nearer my speed. would not hesitate a minute, at boxing a lightweight champion at '33.' The champion has three offers for the next month. From San Francisco Oakland and New Orleans, Jimmy Dunn is now waiting to close for one or all of them. Kilbane's opponents have not been selected. He has nothing on for July 4.

WEAKENS HARVARD TEAM.

Probation In Athletics Causes Loss of Several Stars.

Cambridge, Mass., June 12.-Proba tion, the bane of all college athletes has been having a "merry" run at Harvard, and as a result the student counell after hearing graduates connected with the university sports speak in favor of a remedy for this state of affairs, has just appointed a committee to study the existing situation from all angles and to report its investigations to that body. Coach Percy D. Haughton of the eleven and J. Wells Farley, head of the football committee, were the men who appeared before the council and dwelt at length on the inroads probation is making in Harvard athletes. Football blds fair to lose several promising men unless studies are strictly attended to

Jim Gilman, varsity tackle last fall, has already been forced to leave the university temporarily, and on his return next fall will still be ineligible for the team. R. B. Hitchcock, a freshman star, is another football player forced out of college. Fred Withington's status at present prevents him from participating in any sport. The baseball team lost Boyle, Ervin and Heyer, all men of great promise and track lost Rod Tower, a member of Harvard's champion short distance indoor relay team. The council soon after listening to Messrs. Haughton and Farley, appoint ed a committee to investigate the best methods toward creating sentiment against probation, the members of which follow: E. D. Bradesee, J. W. Parley, graduates; C. E. Brickley, G. P. Plimton, W. H. Trumbull and W. H. Barron.

This was the sentiment expressed to day by Attorney George W. Pepper of Philadelphia, representing William M Killifer, Jr., catcher with the Philadel phia Nationals, and the owners of th team, when he stood before the United States circuit court of appeals and opposed the idea for an injunction t revent Killifer from playing with the Philadelphia club made by the owner of the Chicago Federal league club, Attorney E. E. Gates, representing the Chicago Federals, made the first argument. He said that Killifer told President Gilmore and other officers of the Federal league that he was free to make a contract for his services and Philadelphia Nationals.

Judge Denison put the question superior infighting. If I had boxed "Did not the owners of the Federal league club know of the reserve clause in Killifer's contract?"

Attorney Gates replied: "Even if they had knowledge of it, it was only have White up in front, you can see. general knowledge and they still would have the right to offer work to Killifer, inasmuch as he had told them he was not under contract to any one

> At the conclusion of the arguments, the judges announced that they would take the case under consideration and would hand down a decision later.

San Francisco, Cal., June 12.-Howard Ehmke, a 19-year-old youth who left high school this year to play baseball for the Los Angeles team, heads the list of pitchers in the Pacific Coast league to date, with seven straight victories to his credit.

Besides these seven games won, Ehmke has been sent in to finish a half dozen others, and a total of thirteen runs for the season has been charged against him.

It is said Ehmke, before coming to California from the east last year, was given a work out by Manager McGraw or the New York Nationals, but was rejected for his youth,
